"The Whip-poor-will Club"

Book II 1940

Revised Constitution of the Whip-post-will Club.

Change is the one thing in life that brings about all joy and all sorrow.
Men are continually making changes in homes that they may better their conditions, but it does not always turn out as they desire.
However, that does not alter the case — as we are still willing to take risk because we see others making a success by changing.
There is but one change
that all true men can make that have not already made it, that is to change from a nonfraternal to a fraternal.

Fraternity exhibits highest and noblest character in man.
It places him in a position to help and be helped.

"It is more blessed to give than to receive."

June 18, 1945

After a cool and wet spring, nature provided us with a beautiful warm Monday, on June 18, the day the Whip-poor-will members, their Mothers and friends gathered at Alma Wolfe's home for their annual Mother's Day picnic. One hundred and twenty five people were present and each enjoyed a big dinner on Alma's spacious lawn overlooking her flower garden. The dinner was spread out on several long tables from which we chose it cafeteria style. The Mothers sat at a special table decorated with bouquets of roses and peonies. Following the dinner and general visiting, letters were read by the secretary from the following absent club members and Mothers:

Mrs. John Myers - Sagart, N.Y. - Mrs. Agnes Soderlund - Los Angeles, Cal.
 Mrs. Laurena Bowman - Findlay, Ohio - Mrs. C.D. Wolfe - Pueblo, Colo.
 Mrs. J. H. Hemphill - San Diego, Cal. - Mrs. Woods Spencer - Richmond, Cal.
 Mrs. J. A. Bailey - Hutchinson, Kan. - Mrs. Ella Austin - Sheldon, Ill.
 Mrs. Howard Hies - Ravensport - Mrs. Howard Bailey, Des Moines

Mabel Stoner directed the afternoon program which began with the club girls singing the "Whip-poor-will" song. "Greetings to Mothers" and "Mother Day" were read by Bece Foster, the first being of her own writing. Cora Young gave a response and a bit of reminiscence. The mothers sang "Auld Lang Syne". Mrs. Emma Zeller 87, was the oldest Mother present. Agda Aet gave a reading

"Jon Jonson, the Janitor." Barbara Burdick played a clarinet solo, "On Wings of Song." Arlene Walle, Margaret Probst and Betty Lou McBride, True Blue 4-H Club members, presented, by request, a humorous skit "No Visitors Allowed." Nell Fuhrmeister paid tribute to members who had passed away throughout the year, by placing a large white rose in a vase for each of the following:
 Edna Myers Swords a charter member
 Gerne Rauschaw
 Lizzie Brown
 Augusta Brueger

In their memory, Nell read, "Coming Home" and "To those Left Behind." In closing the program for the afternoon, "Mother Machree" and Brahms "Lullaby" was sung by the septet.

After a lovely dinner, a nice program, and a social time together, we departed, happy that so many of us could be together again this year.

the theme by reading "Your Flag and My Flag" after which the club sang "America" and "The Battle Hymn of the Republic". Irma related some of her youthful Fourth of July experiences and then each of us told of ours. It was indeed a treat to have Lucille Colony with us again to tell of her work in New York City for nearly a year. The next meeting will be August 4 in the home of Grace George at which time we will have a shower for Grace Larew. Mary Kline, Emma Novak and Marg Quichart are in charge of the entertainment. Oct. 4 - ¹⁹⁴⁷ our meeting was held at the home of Alma Wolf. Twenty-five members and two guests were present and four initiates Bette Cogan, Berelyn Raushaw, Betty Lou Raushaw, and Ada Stoner. The minutes of the last meeting were read and approved. Treasurer reported $57.28 on hand. As there was no business, meeting adjourned.

The initiation committee, Clara Roup and Erma Wroak, then took charge of initiation, which proved to be one round of hilarious activity for our new members. They were sent to school barefoot over a supposedly gravelled road, then with Ada as teacher each was requested to blow a bubble with the gum which had previously been presented to them. Next in line was the task of putting unpopped corn in a milk bottle using a table knife. Finally they were required to apply make up on each other, the 'applier' being blindfolded. Needless to say, the effect on all was ^{quite} fetching, and the brand of make-up too good as it proved quite difficult to be removed. After this nonsensical initiation came the formal initiation at the close of which each was presented with the club flower, pink carnation. Cherry Pie ^{with} La Cream and coffee were very much enjoyed. Erma Seaton Sec.

Also moved, seconded + carried we give $5.00 to the League of Woman Voters. Meeting was adjourned.

satisfactory after her recent operation. More letters from the families in Denmark and Germany were read by Alma Wolfe, Mary Wolfe, Grace George, and Emma Sautman. These were all very interesting and revealed to us what it really means to them to receive any clothing and food. Treasurer Cleora Roup reported $46.31 on hand. Under new business Sarah Young brought up the matter of showers for Madeline Ranshaw who is to be married soon and Carolyn Colony who was married in January. It was decided we have the shower for Madeline on April 15th at the Ranshaw home and at that time take up a collection for a group gift to be sent to Carolyn who lives in Portland, Me. Then Bess Myers told of the breakfast itself, how it was served and what was served. Both accounts were extremely interesting to us, especially those who happened to hear the program on the radio.

Sarah Young then led a group discussion on preparing and wrapping foods for home lockers, what could be stored to best advantage, new wrappings now available on the market, etc. After this delightful refreshments were served.

Elma Colony reported that the "Carolyn Colony Shower Committee" had sent the sum of $35 to Carolyn, which was the total amount contributed by members towards a shower gift for her. Since Carolyn could buy what she wanted at cost, they decided it would be more practical to send the money and let her buy what she would most prefer.

Three flower bills totaling $6.75 were presented and accepted. Treasurer Clara Roup reported a balance of $48.31 on hand at the close of the Club year. It was announced that everyone should bring a table and cover to the picnic, also that all local mothers should be invited by word of mouth, thus eliminating extra work for the invitation committee.
